Documentation Music Playlist

Instructions:

Press any key to shuffle

Left Click to force an error

The left click performs a shuffle, then changes the first track so that it is the same as the previous starting track. The code will then perform a check to see if the first track is repeating. The left click simply creates an error state, it DOES NOT force the error message, the code is checking that.